

FILOSOFIADALTAQUOTA

CALL FOR PAPERS

Filosofia d'alta quota's meetings try to involve graduate and PhD students, scholars, independent researchers from different fields of philosophy and aim at opening their researches towards new directions within an interdisciplinary context.

An open selection of the papers will be evaluated by a Scientific Committee composed by: Prof. Luca Fonnesu (Università degli Studi di Pavia), Prof. Angelo Lascioli (Università di Verona), Dott. Andrea Capra (Università degli Studi di Milano), Dott.ssa Francesca Pasquali (Università degli Studi di Milano), Dott. Nicola Riva (Università degli Studi di Milano), Dott.ssa Beatrice Magni (Università degli Studi di Milano), Dott. Giovanni Raimo (Assegnista post-doc DAAD, Berlino), Dott. Francesco Tava (CTS – Centrum pro Teoretická Studia, Karlova Univerzita, Praga), Prof. Sergio Filippo Magni (Univeristà degli Studi di Pavia)..

The 2013 annual meeting focuses on the theme:

Limits and Freedom: Human Condition, Knowledge and Action suspended between two Absolutes

The papers presented can deal with the following issues:

1. The role of limits and freedom within knowledge and human action.
2. Binds' ability to stimulate the decisional and cognitive process.
3. The fruitful role of constrictions and the negative one of possibility.
4. The peculiarity of human condition suspended between necessity and freedom.
